

Do you need a District Nurse to look at your client's wound?

Before you complete the referral form - please consider the following questions

Does the patient have capacity to consent to a referral to FNHC? If not, then a best interest decision should be made before referral.

The information placed on the referral form will help to prioritise the urgency of the visit